

Shepherds Fold Ministry Overview

The Vision and Mission

10/02/2020

Vision: Since 1986, our vision is to help homeless individuals released from prison or jail find total freedom from the inside out.

Mission: Equip individuals released from prison, through its six-month transitional program, to make a genuine life transformation after prison and become contributing members of society.

Shepherds Fold Calling and History

- Started in 1986 by Mary Kay Beard and her husband Don Beard. The Shepherds Fold stands as the most experienced, longest running successful prison re-entry ministry in the state of Alabama.
- Shepherds Fold primarily thrives through the loving support of men and women, numerous churches and organizations throughout the greater Birmingham community.
- Currently, we operate our 25,600 square foot men's center in the Brownsville area of Birmingham near Lawson State College. We also own and operate apartments in the West End neighborhood caring for graduates. The Villas of Shepherds Fold in Alabaster, providing further accountability and support for our graduates.

Shepherds Fold Success Indicators and Expansion Goals

- Our Success rate is unsurpassed. Graduates of Shepherds Fold have approximately 3% recidivism.
- We seek to grow to an annual budget of $520,000 for 2019 fiscal year ending February 2020.
- We continue to provide career enhancement, rehabilitation and life skills in the most cost-efficient way.
- We strive to develop our impact on the local community through relationships and partnerships with businesses, local, city and governmental representatives.

Shepherds Fold Results-to-Date

- OUR CURRENT SUCCESS RATE for Graduates of our six-month residential program remaining out of prison is approximately 97%.
- The result of lives transformed is over 2,300.
